The Translation & Interpreting Center is thrilled to launch our new website. In an effort to meet our clients sophisticated needs, we've added monthly editorials with cutting edge information. We've also added a monthly feature where we will highlight one of our extraordinary language professionals. After visiting our website you will have the latest industry news and become acquainted with our top interpreters and translators. We hope this will affirm your confidence in us.

Our assurances: complete your translation project at budget, on time, and deliver a product that will meet your expectations.

We work closely with certified American Translators Association (ATA) who provide expertise in all industries. Our project managers work closely with you from the beginning of the project to the end, and we guarantee you will be completely satisfied with the end product.

On our new Home Page you will find a detailed explanation of our many translation services. After you have chosen the translation service that best suits your needs you can request a translation by completing our Translation Request Form and forwarding it to us by fax or email. Of course we welcome your phone call if that is more convenient for you.

Additionally, we offer language interpreters for over 40 different languages. We provide a wireless headset which facilitates individual client service. Please complete our Interpreting Request Form and email or fax it to us. Comparison shoppers will find that we have the best price and the best quality. Contact us for a free quote or review our Pricing Information page to find general information about our rates.

We survey the language professionals market to insure that we offer the best interpreting prices in Colorado, and the best translation prices nation wide.

Are you on the other side of the industry and want to become a team member of the TI Center? We are recruiting the best interpreters and translators in the field and welcome hearing from local and national language professionals. Our compensation is competitive, based on experience and certification. Visit our Join Us page for more information.

We are proud to be the first language service in the nation to address vicarious trauma and its effects on language professionals. To participate in our workshop, Health Enabling Language Professionals (HELP), please contact us.

We will be presenting at the upcoming annual ATA Conference in Orlando this year; stop by our workshop – we would love to meet you.

We are the premier language service, serving both local and national organizations in all industries. Watch for our next editorial on The Cost of Choosing the Wrong Translator.
